NEEDS PLACEMATS

We need home-made placemats for Holiday Meal Delivery every year on Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas!

Hundreds of volunteers deliver thousands of meals right on Easter Sunday, Thanksgiving Day, and again on Christmas Day.

The placemat is the loving warm hug that goes with the hot meal.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

HOW. Draw, paint, color, tape, or glue designs onto your placemat.

PAPER. Use any size, kind, or color (copy paper, construction paper, paper grocery bags).

SUPPLIES.

Stickers, glue, sequins, cotton balls, dry macaroni, felt, cut-outs from greeting cards, tissue paper, crayons, chalk, paint, markers, pencils, or anything you want.

WHAT.

Make an original design, or find a festive picture in a coloring book. Your work of art is likely to go on a fridge as a decoration, rather than be used as an actual placemat.

You can draw holiday-specific pictures, houses, landscapes, fun designs and abstracts, snowflakes, people, ski resorts, snowmen, turkeys, animals, food, or any positive or cute image you wish, and you can say anything you want that is encouraging or positive.

The most popular placemats have one-liner corny jokes (like: "What did the bunny say to the carrot? It has been nice gnawing you.") or humorous stories & comments.

Kids - sign your first name, so the senior knows the placemat was made by you.
